

HELPING ONTARIANS, especially those in small, rural, northern, and remote areas, access the online education and training they need to get or retain a job, earn a promotion, or advance their career without having to leave their communities.

Since 1986

● Recruiting and Helping Online Learners

Provide direct, personalized, one-on-one, and local help to Ontarians to find and register in online programs and courses at the basic skills, secondary, and post-secondary levels that meet their needs and interests. We also offer support services to help Ontarians succeed in their online education or training.

- Information on online programs and courses from Ontario's colleges, universities, Indigenous Institutes and other education and training providers
- Help to register
- Information on financial aid
- Laptop and Internet loaner program
- Troubleshooting and solving technical problems
- Use of web conferencing platform
- studyonline.ca
- e-Channel.ca

● Supporting Faculty and Institutions

Help Ontario education and training providers recruit students for their online programs and courses, provide technology platforms to deliver their programs and courses, and share resources and best practices for their faculty and instructors who teach online.
